The Internal Revenue Code and Oregon Administrative Rules require that you disclose your Social Security Number when claiming unemployment compensation. Your Social Security Number will be used to report your unemployment benefits to the Internal Revenue Service and Oregon Department of Revenue as income that is taxable. The number will be sent to the Social Security Administration for identity verification. The number will also be used as a record for processing your claim, for statistical purposes, to register you in our electronic job matching system (iMatchSkills) and will be shared with WorkSource Partners for One-Stop services. The number may be used for state agency debt collection activities and may be sent to U.S. Bank to issue you a ReliaCard VISA card through which you will be paid benefits.

TAX WITHHOLDING

AUTHORIZATION FOR TAX WITHHOLDING

Any unemployment insurance benefits you receive are fully taxable income if you are required to file a tax return. You may need to make estimated tax payments. For more information on estimated tax payments, contact the Internal Revenue Service. For state tax information, contact the Oregon Department of Revenue.

You may choose to have 10% of your benefits withheld for federal taxes and/or 6% for state taxes.

- * Do you choose to have 10% of your unemployment benefits withheld for federal income \Box Yes \Box No taxes?

This authorization will remain in effect for this claim until the Oregon Employment Department has received written notification from you of its termination.

NOTE: The first benefit payment is made by check. All subsequent payments are issued electronically by ReliaCard VISA or direct deposit. Once your first payment is approved, a ReliaCard VISA debit card will be sent to you. You have the option of applying for direct deposit; however, payments will be issued by ReliaCard until a direct deposit application is received.

ALTERNATE BASE YEAR

To qualify for an unemployment insurance claim, you must have enough wages/hours in the Base Year. The regular Base Year is first four of the last five calendar quarters that are complete on the date you file your claim.

If you do not qualify for a Regular Base Year claim in Oregon or against any other state where you worked during the base year, your claim will be redetermined using more recent wages and we will file an Oregon Alternate Base Year (ABY) claim.

The ABY claim uses the wages/hours in the last four calendar quarters that are complete as of the date you file your claim.

Information about ABY claims:

- 1. You are not eligible for an ABY claim if you qualify using the regular Base Year. We will search for any possible missing wages. If we later find more wages/hours in the regular Base Year, we will change your ABY claim to the regular Base Year. This may change the amount of your benefits.
- 2. For an ABY claim, we drop the oldest quarter of wages/hours from your claim and add the most recent completed quarter of wages/hours.

If you file an ABY claim now, you cannot reuse this newer quarter of wages on any future claim. A later claim may be based on only three calendar quarters of wages/hours.

CERTIFICATION

Please read the following certification prior to submitting your application for benefits.

- 1. I certify under penalty of perjury that I am a citizen of the United States or legally authorized to work in the United States.
- 2. I understand the questions I have been asked. My answers are true to the best of my knowledge.
- 3. I understand the law provides penalties for making false statements in order to obtain unemployment insurance benefits.
- 4. When claiming unemployment insurance benefits online, or by touch-tone telephone, I accept the responsibility for the security of my personal identification number (PIN). I will notify the Employment Department to have my PIN changed if I forget my PIN or if it becomes known to someone else.
- 5. By submitting this application, I hereby register for work and request an initial determination of benefits potentially payable to me. I authorize the Employment Department to obtain and use information from any source I provide for administering unemployment insurance and employment service activities.
- 6. Eligibility Notice: Your Work Search Requirements
 Your benefits will be DENIED if you do not seek work as required!

Each week you claim benefits, you must be:

- Physically and mentally able to work
- Available for full-time, part-time, and temporary work usually during the days and hours normal for your type of work
- Actively seeking work for jobs you may be hired to do

To be considered actively seeking work, you must make two direct-employer contacts AND do three additional work-seeking activities, each week you claim. You must make direct contact with employers to ask about or apply for jobs in the way the employer prefers.

You must record:

- Date you made contact
- Company name, phone number and address, or online job posting ID number
- Person contacted (if applicable)
- How you contacted the company (phone, resume, online application, email, etc.)
- Type of work or position you applied for
- Result of your contact (applied, hired, not hired, interview, no response, etc.)

Your additional work-seeking activities may include more employer contacts, updating your resume, or searching job listings. Write down what work-seeking activity you did and the date you did it.

Although the following situations are NOT common and do NOT apply to most people, you may fall under these requirements.

If you are a union member (in good standing with a dispatching union that does not allow you to seek non-union work), you are actively seeking work if you remain on your union's out-of-work list, stay in contact with your union, and are capable of accepting and reporting for work when dispatched by the union.

You may be temporarily unemployed if you have been laid off or had your hours reduced and expect to return to work for your same employer. You must be returning to full-time work or work that pays more than your weekly benefit amount. There must not be more than four weeks between the week you became temporarily unemployed and the week you are returning to work. You are actively seeking work by staying in contact with your employer. If your return-to-work date changes and is beyond four weeks, you must begin actively seeking work at once.

If you are a federal employee who is temporarily unemployed due to a government shutdown and expects to resume work with your federal employer once the shutdown ends, you are actively seeking work by remaining in contact with your regular employer and are capable of accepting and reporting for any suitable work with that employer.

Contact the UI Center at 1-877-345-3484 if you do not know if the situations above apply to you.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR YOU TO KNOW.

Once your claim has been filed, Frances Online (frances.oregon.gov) is the fastest way to file weekly claims, restart a claim after a reporting break, view your claim status, change your address, and sign up for electronic deposit.

Unemployment claim records are confidential. We will not give information about your claim to anyone who calls unless you have already given us a signed release authorizing that person to make inquiries on your behalf.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

This is what you need to do.

Claim benefits for every week you are unemployed. The week starts on a Sunday and ends on Saturday. The first week you file is called the "Waiting Week". You will not receive benefits for this week but you must claim it in order to receive future payments. Filing an initial claim alone does not establish waiting week credit. The waiting week must be claimed like any other week.

You can file your weekly claim in Frances Online. It's the fastest way to file. The system can handle many claims functions and questions about your claim. You can also claim by using the telephone. The claimant handbook will explain how to do this.

You are required to register in iMatchSkills and have an individual review with WorkSource Center staff. iMatchSkills is the Employment Department's tool that connects you with hiring employers. You will receive a letter in a few days telling you how to register and complete your review. Failure to complete your registration and individual review will result in a denial of benefits.

This is what we are going to do.

Fax: (503) 947-1668

Our claims staff will review the information you submitted prior to establishing your unemployment claim. This process may take a few days. We will contact you if we need additional information.

We will mail a statement indicating your weekly benefit amount. It will list the wages used in determining your benefits. We will request any out of state and Federal agency wages you may have. We will add them to your claim when received by our agency.

Your first benefit payment will be by check, with subsequent payments issued electronically by ReliaCard VISA or direct deposit. Additional details about payments will be available after your claim is processed.
